Dedication

Steven Wilson

The pages which follow, memories of the 1980-81 school year, are dedicated to our fellow classmate, Steven Wilson, and our fellow teacher, William Valentine.

Because they, too, shared in our high school experiences, yet did not live to see them draw to a close, the happenings of 80-81 are fondly dedicated to them.

William Valentine

1980 1981

The good die young, so men have sadly sung
Who do not know the happier reason why

Is never that they die while they are young,
But that the good are young until they die."

are moments too brief to be held by the eye;

High School is many things . . .

. . . Sometimes
It is a puzzle and
A whirl filled with Vitality and activity;
Or it is a strange,
Confused four-year
Wonderland,
Where the very Young live in Dreams.

. . . Sometimes
It is a restful, quiet
Retreat which we enter
To think, to learn,
To create, to work,
Or just to be alone.

. . . Sometimes,
It is a curiosity shop,
Made up of people —
All kinds of people,

Who are engrossed in
The hopes,
The ambitions,
The disappointments,
And even the Loneliness of Their Own private Worlds.

And then too, it
Is the calm, serene Moments when we Lose ourselves in A good book,
Or in the nostalgia
of music.

So often it is more Than a bridge we Pass over;
It is the basic Structure we built
Our lives upon . . .

. . . Or it is a magic Carpet which carries us
Into the realms of Discovery, co-operation,
Solitude, contemplation
And sometimes even Happiness

Wow! Who's this sexy guy?

Well, guys. What do you think?

Private moments to be shared collectively . . .
let the world
hurry by while we stop off for
on experience . . . learn to react under the microscope of time.

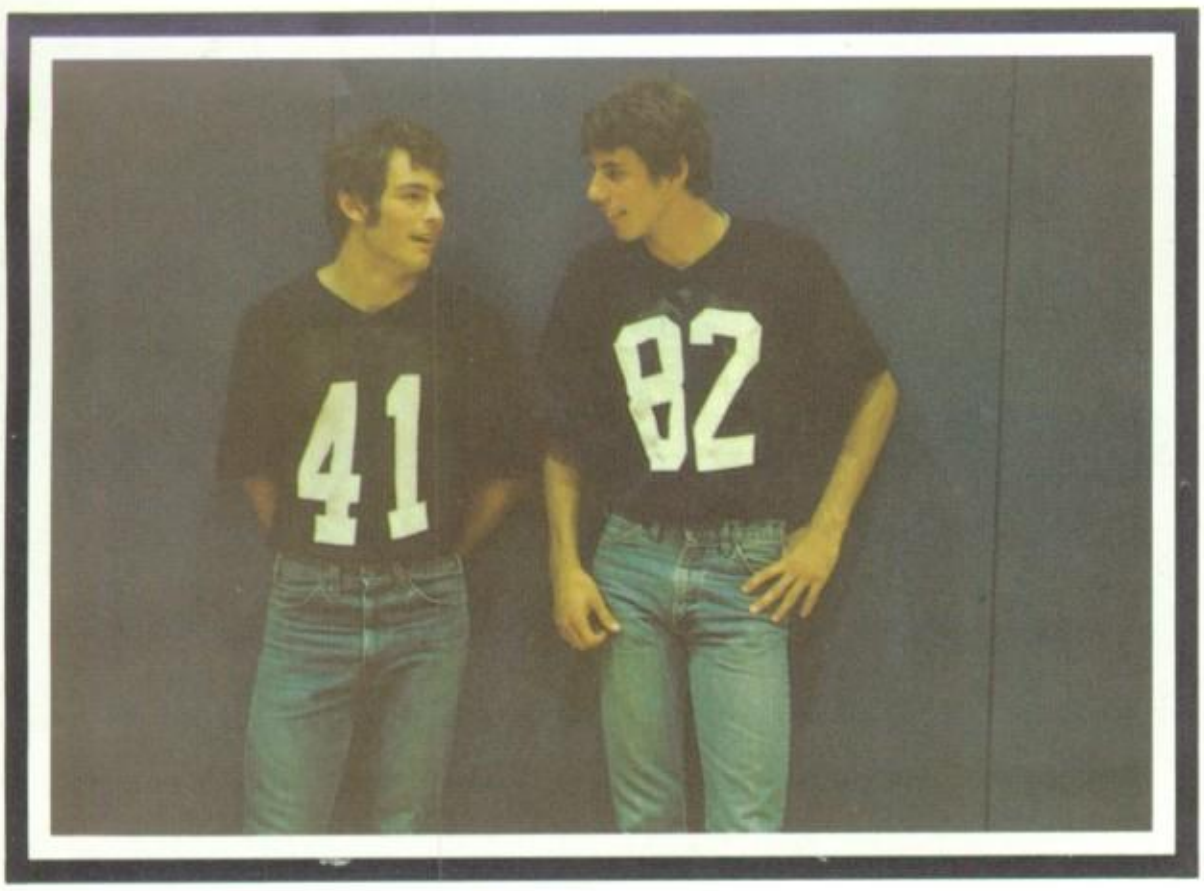
Guess Who?



The "2" stooges.

A perfect "10"

There is a time for everything time to concentrate on the fine tuning of the timpani . . .
time to ponder the demands of yearbook editing . . .
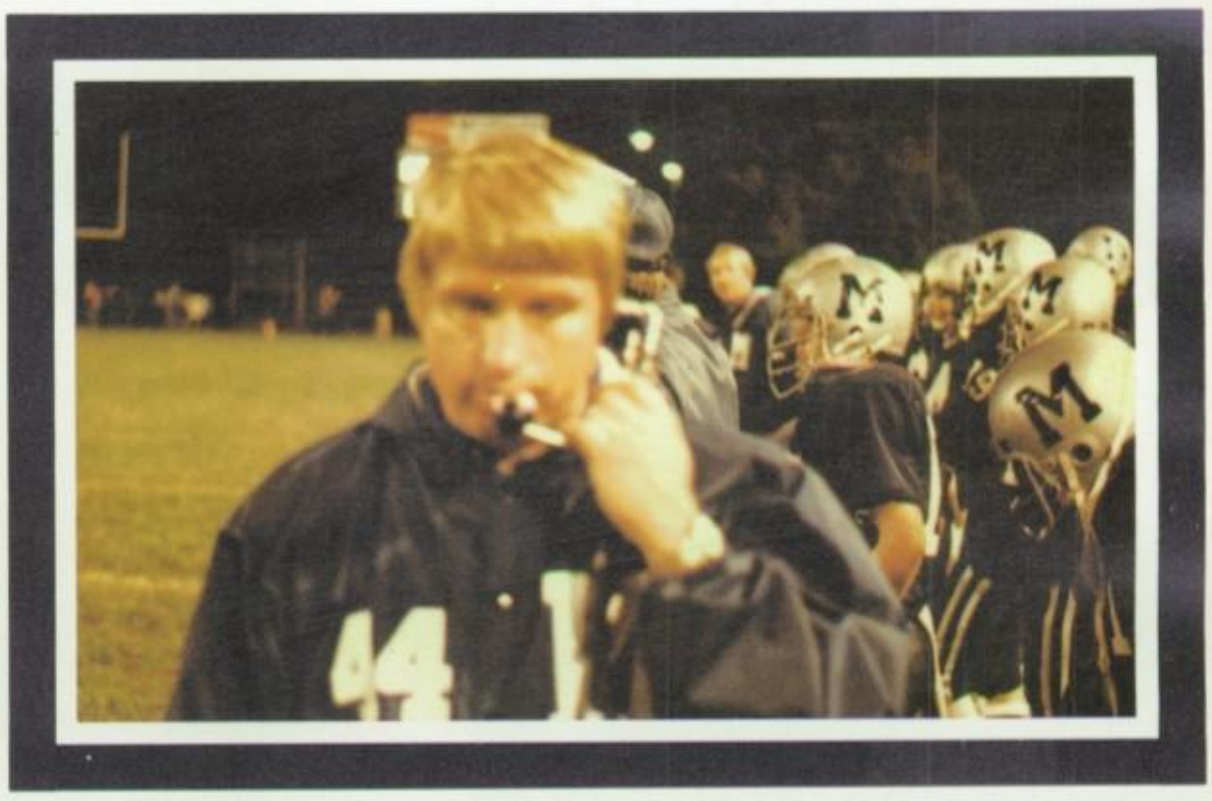
time to sprint the remaining 100 yards to victory . . .
time to lunch and re-charge for afternoon demands . . .
Hold fast the time!



Fleeting . . . moments of intense interest fleeting by . . . but gone . . . now they are gone . . . like the dying shout of support . . . to be left unattended . . . unattended until rescued and retold . . . a yearbook never forgets!

Government Day

Government Day provides the Senior Government Students the opportunity to participate in local government sponsored activities. Prior to Government Day an election is held to elect students to fill such local positions as Mayor, Councilmen, Judge, Sheriff, and other local government offices. On Government Day those who were elected go out into the community and fill those offices with the local elected officials thus gaining an insight into the operations of the local government. Mr. Thomas Tewksbary is the faculty adviser for this project.

For the first time in the history of Morgan High School there were two pep squads used to cheer on the athletic teams, one for the football season and one for the basketball season. This allowed more girls to participate in cheerleading and other activities they would not normally become involved in during the school year. This year there were also two advisors for the cheerleaders, Mary Lou McConnel Fannin and Thomas Heppner.
